

Philadelphia

Words and Music
by Sri Chinmoy
Spring 1975

$\text{♩} = 112$ Moderate

Phi - la - del - phi - a, Phi - la - del - phi - a, Phi - la - del - phi - a,

Phi - - - la - del - - - phi - - - a! fine O___ sweet ci - ty of bro - - - ther - ly love,

O___ God_____ — Per - - fec - - tion ^{1.} be - low, a - bove. ^{2.} - bove.

Phi - la - del - phi - a, Phi - la - del - phi - a, Phi - la - del - phi - a,

Phi - - - la - del - - - phi - - - a! Your world — at - - - ten - - - tion

Li - ber - ty Bell_____ ^{1.} Pro - claimed the death of our bon - - dage — hell. ^{2.} — hell.

O Free - dom — lov - - - - - ers' ^{1.} - ers' ^{2.} U - - - to - pi - a! ^{1.} - a! ^{2.}

Sing once with repeats, then D.C. al fine with repeat.

Philadelphia, Philadelphia,
Philadelphia, Philadelphia!
O sweet city of brotherly love,
O God-Perfection below, above.

Philadelphia, Philadelphia,
Philadelphia, Philadelphia!
Your world-attention Liberty Bell
Proclaimed the death of our bondage-hell.
O Freedom-lovers' Utopia!

Sri Chinmoy composed this song in the spring of 1975 as part of his seven-act play, The Sacred Fire, about the founding of America. He requested it be sung "full of enthusiasm and sweetness".